

MEDIAALERTPHOTOPMEDIAALERTPHOTOPMEDIAALERT

MELKY JEAN AND SUSAN TAYLOR TO HOST EXCLUSIVE EVENT TO LAUNCH 'THE CARE FOR HAITI' MUSIC PROJECT

Grammy Award-Winning Artists Patti LaBelle, Jill Scott, Tweet, Wyclef Jean, T-Pain, Natasha Bedingfield, Sean Paul and Others to Participate in Benefit Album for Haiti

WHO: Susan Taylor, former Editor-in-Chief of Essence Magazine and R&B artist, Melky Jean will co-host a special event on Friday, January 25th to launch 'The CARE for Haiti Music Project'. The pair will announce a world-wide initiative focused on ending poverty in Haiti. The project includes a benefit album featuring some of the world's most recognized artists and musicians. The January 25th launch event is sponsored by The Norbert Simmons Family Foundation and co-sponsored by CARE and Yelé Haiti.

WHAT: The CARE for Haiti Music Project will release a compilation world music album including selections and music from such artists as Jill Scott, Sean Paul, Patti LaBelle, Tweet, Angelique Kidjo, and others. Proceeds from the album will support and fund the work of CARE and Yelé Haiti in the region. Additional information about the upcoming charitable album will be made available at the event.

WHERE: The Manor
73 Eighth Avenue Btw 13th & 14th Street
New York NY 10014

WHEN: January 25th, 2008
6:30-9:30 PM

MEDIA RSVP IS REQUIRED**

Press Contact

Priya Bhambri or Miatta David, MVD Inc.
212.244.5436

Priya@mvdinc.us or Miatta@mvdinc.us

